

Booster Club Meeting Minutes – Tuesday, February 5, 2013

Call to Order: Tom Hamm called the meeting to order at ~ 7:00 pm with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Attendees: Tom Hamm, Rose Hamm, Robin Rivera, Rondre Baluyot, Eric Buffkin, Cadet Eric Buffkin, Lt. Col. Grigg, and Chief Price.

Minutes: The minutes from the previous meeting were approved.

Treasurer's Report:

Current balance as of 2/5/13...$25,391.25

Deposits reflect only the first week's ticket sales for the Applebee's fundraiser. There will be another deposit of ~$2,000-$4,000 for the second week's ticket sales. The Treasurer's Report was approved.

FL-821 Cadet Briefing:

Eric Buffkin, Drill Team Commander, provided a briefing on the FL-821 drill rifles. Of 24 rifles, only 16 are currently in use due to disrepair. The cadets requested funds to purchase parts needed to repair the 8 rifles, purchase parts needed for minor repairs on the 16 rifles currently in use, purchase slings for all 24 rifles, and purchase a toolbox for storing parts. Motion was made and seconded to purchase parts, slings, and toolbox, including tax and shipping up to $1800.

Old Business:

1. Applebee's Fundraiser
 - a. ½ of the needed volunteers have committed and should have enough.
 - b. 26 cadets have signed up to participate.

New Business:

1. Cadet Fund Request

See FL-821 Cadet briefing above.
2. Top Sales Rewards/ Trips – 10 cadets (so far) are in the "500 Club". There may be one or two additional cadets that achieve $500 in sales. There has been some discussion about taking a trip to Universal as a reward, but the cadets will get to decide.
3. Future Improvements –
 - a. FL-821 would like to make improvements in the classroom, potentially hanging drywall and installing carpet. They would also like to purchase new tables.
 - b. New Drill Pad efforts are on hold, pending funding. An estimate of $20K was received, not including potential discounts.
